Dear Colleagues,

In 2023 was the first year of our journal, the Intercontinental Journal of Internal Medicine, and we proudly shared first 4 issues with you. In 2024, we are proud to continue our way by presenting studies that will shed light on science and the future.

We are publishing our first issue this March, as we do last year. In this issue, current and interesting information in different medical fields is shared with original articles, case reports and reviews. We believe that this content, which shares recent and current topics from internal medicine ,will be useful for all physicians.

As we celebrate the 2nd publishing year of our journal, we would like to take this opportunity to thank the readers, for their continued interest throughout the year, the authors who submitted their articles to the journal, to reviewers who provided objective guidance in the evaluation of the articles, and all our editors who ensured that ICJIM continued its regular publication life, for their contributions.

Assoc. Prof. Bilgin Bahadır BAŞGÖZ
Associate Editor-in-Chief
